

Days from the end of the Week during which Delivery of the relevant Produce is deemed to have been accepted by the EW.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Agent may still elect to charge for the Additional Fees even where the Produce is rejected in accordance with the HPA.

---

10. Independent Legal Advice

---

The Agent recommends that Growers seek independent legal advice in relation to the HPA prior to it being entered into between the Agent and the Grower.

---

11. Changes to Terms of Trade

---

The Agent may from time to time amend these Terms of Trade in accordance with the requirements of the Code.

---

12. Grower Acknowledgement

---

The Grower acknowledges that it must not supply any Produce to the Agent without having accepted the HPA in writing.

Unless a Grower has entered into a HPA with the Agent, the Agent will have no obligations of any kind to the Grower in respect of Produce despatched by the Grower to the Agent.

---

13. Insurance (if applicable)

---

The Agent holds the following insurances for Produce:

Insurer
Maximum amount of claims covered by insurance
Defined events covered by insurance

If the above table is left blank the Agent does not hold insurance for Produce required to be disclosed for the purposes of the Code.